Q: OutOfMemoryException on MonoTouch I'm using the OpenTripPlanner library for iOS in MonoTouch. My application often crashes on the applicationDidFinishLaunching function with an OutOfMemoryException when trying to load a localization string. I already resolved this issue by upgrading my phone from the old 3.1 to 4.2.1 and iOS 4.3. This fixed the issue for me because the old version of iOS 4.3 does not have MonoTouch support. But now I'm getting an error because after upgrading my phone my development app still has the old XCode run through MonoDevelop. Running on the
